Mrs. Mary Hartwell Catherwood, whose serial story, "The Romance of Dollard," begins in the coming November Century, is an American lady, residing in Hoopston, Ill. Among her previous writings are two books for young people entitled "Rocky Fort" and "Old Caravan Days." She has been greatly interested in Canadian subjects since her visit in Canada four years ago, when she was the guest of an American consul's family and saw the inside of Canadian life. She herself has lately said: "The story of Dollard at first impressed me as incredible. I thought over it long before hunting up records, historical evidence, and contemporary life. Finally I began to make it a story." The historian, Parkman, has written a preface for Mrs. Catherwood's novel, and Mr. Sandham, lately of Canada and now of Boston, has made illustrations for it, and it will run through four numbers of the Century.

Joseph Poggenpohl, the grocery merchant of Hume, wife and two little sons, attended the funeral of Adam Furst, at Rich Hill Tuesday of last week, and on their return home their team ran away, just as they were arriving in Hume. The Hume Star says:

Upon investigation Mrs. Poggenpohl was found lying under the wreck with one of her ankles broken and her leg badly bruised. She was brought to town by Col Hogan, her injuries dressed by Dr. Herndon. Mr. Poggenpohl was scratched and bruised about the head, face and arms, and one of the little boys sustained injuries to one of his arms.

The carriage is badly wrecked and it is estimated that it will cost about $75 to repair it. None of the horses were injured. Mr. Thompson, owner of the horses and carriage, seriously regrets the accident.

A Farmers Opinion.

ED. TIMES:—Being a subscriber of your paper and a reader of the same I noticed in your paper of week before last an accusation against one, L. J. Burch, republican candidate for sheriff of Bates county, alleging that he (Burch) was a defaulter while acting as administrator of Jasper county, this state. Thinking probably that these charges were more for a political effect than anything else, and have been thinking seriously of voting for Burch myself, but when I read the weak, frail and groundless attempt of the Bates County Record of the 20th instant, I fell back to my first love, the democrat party, and shall vote it straight again this time. The attempts of the Record to prove Burch not guilty as charged by you and other democratic papers in this county, certainly is the weakest effort of the kind I ever read in my life. Mr. Austin admits that he went to Carthage for the purpose, and that alone, to procure proofs to publish to the voters of Bates county, refuting to the satisfaction of everybody the charges against Mr. L. J. Burch, but instead of going to the records of that county and getting copies of all the alleged cases in which he, Burch, is being charged with having defrauded the widows and their children, he simply gets a few men of Carthage to sign their names to an instrument of writing purporting to claim that Mr. Burch was looked upon by them as an honest man. Such charges as those published against Mr. Burch in yours and other papers are grave ones, and they will undoubtedly be recognized as being true unless they are proven to the contrary by copies of the records of Jasper county with the seal of the proper officers thereto. In other words, if you or any other paper should publish anything of a similar nature against me and the charge was untrue, in less than twenty-four hours thereafter I would commence proceedings in our circuit courts, demanding a few thousand damages for attempting to slander me. While these charges against Mr. Burch are undeniable, they certainly must be true, and I fail to see how any voter can honestly vote for Burch, for sheriff of Bates county.

The rally will be extended into the night when a torch light procession will be had. All the surrounding democratic clubs have been invited. Col. Jas. L. Pace has been appointed marshal of the day. Everybody cordially invited.

Call for Convention.

The fifth annual convention of the W. C. T. U. of the 12th congressional district of Missouri will be held at Butler, the 30th and 31st of October 1888.

District superintendents and county presidents are expected to bring or send a report of their work for the year. Each union, no matter how small, is entitled to one delegate; further representation will be based upon one delegate for every ten members or fraction of ten.

As it is just before election, it will need an extra effort, but I urge you to make that effort and have your unions well represented. A new district president will be chosen and the convention should be a representative one.

Mrs. Alice Williams, of Cameron, state superintendent of Young Woman's work will be with us and give an address in the evening. Sisters, be prompt and decided in your action; send your best material, and come expecting to help make this convention the best ever held in the 12th district. Mrs. R. B. ROBINSON, Pres. 12th Dis.

Farmers, Lane gives you a cash price for chickens, turkeys, ducks and eggs.

$400,000 or More.

In refunding farm loans, that is getting a new loan to pay off former loan, every borrower should seek for the best terms and lowest rate of interest and at the same time deal with parties who are reliable and who will see that the borrower gets his old notes and mortgages cancelled and paid off, and all papers surrendered at the time of closing the new loan.

Now to those who want a loan either for investment or for renewal of former loan, we will say the sum of $400,000 or more is now under control of the Bankers Loan and Title Company for the purpose of lending to the borrowers of Bates county upon real estate at the rate of 6½ per cent when carried for 5 years or more. We lend money from 6 months to 7 years. Nothing taken out of loan for expenses. Money furnished immediately as soon as papers are executed and title shown to be perfect. P. C. FULESON, GEO. CANTERBURY, Office west side square. 47.

H. C. WYATT & SON.

That Bates county needs a new jail, is admitted by all who have seen our present old rat-trap, or given a single thought to the subject. Readers of the Record, for the past fifteen years, have over and again read the reports of grand juries, condemning the jail, and recommending the erection of a new one. That we do need a new one, no one denies, and the present is an opportune time for building one. Iron, and all other materials are cheaper than ever before and we are assured by the county court that a "good, safe and substantial jail, with all the modern improvements and conveniences can be built and completed for ten thousand dollars."

The court issued a circular, showing the cost of guards, repairs and transporting prisoners from jails of neighboring counties, (which we issue to-day as a supplement,) which proves to anyone that it will be a saving to the tax-payers to vote the bonds. The proposition should, and we trust will be, carried by the necessary majority.—Record.

Think of it, Bates county, the fifth county in the state, the leading county of southwest Missouri, a county that has been aptly characterized as being "an empire within itself," having no jail! While we are aware that in one sense of the word it is a very flattering compliment indeed, to have it said that we need no jail and that it reflects great credit on our citizens, yet we need a jail. For it often happens that we must punish some audacious scamp from some other county or state for molesting our people; and to do with the least expense to ourselves, must have a jail. $10,000 at most will build and furnish a first class jail, and the extra expense of maintaining our criminals in the jails of other counties would, in less than five years, pay the entire $10,000, interest and all. Think of this on election day and vote for the jail.—Foster News.
